

Brown, Ruby Bell Ransdell 1910 - 1972

The Lexington Herald – April 18, 1972

BROWN, Mrs. Ruby Bell, 62, 229 North Church Street, Cynthiana, died at 4:30 a.m. Monday at the Harrison Memorial Hospital. Widow of William Newton Brown. Native of Bourbon County, member of the Oakwood Baptist Church. Survived by her mother, Mrs. Albert Ransdell, Cynthiana, two daughters, Mrs. Lewis E. Hubbard, Winston-Salem, North Carolina, Miss Vickie Ann Brown, Lexington, six sons, William A., Orlando, Florida, George D., Winston-Salem, Sgt. 1st. Class, Jno B. Korea, M.T.C. Rector W. Bremerton, Washington, Freeman D. and Carl A., both of Lexington, one sister, Mrs. Virgil Fryman, Cynthiana, two brothers, Harry Ransdell, Cynthiana, Carl Ransdell, Lexington, nineteen grandchildren. Funeral Services 4 p.m. Wednesday at the Smith-Rees Chapel, Cynthiana, by Rev. Thomas Downen, burial in Jacksonville Cemetery. Sons will serve as pallbearers. Honorary pallbearers will be Carl and Harry Ransdell, Lewis Hubbard, Jyon Fryman. The body is at the funeral home where friends may call after 3 p.m. today.

Brown, Ruby Bell Ransdell 1910 - 1972

Last printed 4/3/2013 7:48 PM