

Lexington Herald Leader - September 20, 1995

GRAHAM

Anna Jewel Ransdell Graham, 75, of 2000 Sunset Dr., Paris, formerly of Lexington and Nicholasville, widow of C.H. "Doc" Graham, died Wed. at Bourbon General Hosp. She was a native of Bourbon Co., daughter of the late Frank and Queen Elliott Ransdell. She was educated in the Bourbon Co. School System and was a member of the Edgewood Baptist Church, Nicholasville. She is survived by two sons, Frank T. McKinley and Robert A. McKinley Sr., both of Lexington; two sisters, Mrs. Lewis (Ona) Mastin and Mrs. Lewis (Aileene) Bailey, both of Nicholasville; a brother, Charles F. Ransdell, Paris; 3 grandsons, Steven Allen McKinley, Cincinnati, OH, James Thomas McKinley and Robert A. McKinley Jr., both of Lexington; 6 grandchildren, Katie, Karie, Karyn, Michael, Matthew and Thomas McKinley; two dear friends, Ken and Marilyn Caudell. Funeral services 1 p.m. Sat. at the Hinton-Turner Funeral Home, Paris, by Rev. Gayle Toole and Rev. David Ransdell. Interment in the Jacksonville Cemetery, Bourbon Co. Casketbearers will be grandsons, Steve, Jimbo and Bob McKinley Jr., and nephews, David Ransdell, John Ransdell, D.D. Mastin and Shelton Roberts. Honorary bearers will be Russ Steele, Paul Holloran, Ken Caudell, Joe Holloran, Lewis Bailey and Lewis Mastin. Visitation at the funeral home 5-9 p.m. today. Memorials are suggested to the Edgewood Baptist Church, Nicholasville, KY, or Hospice of the Bluegrass.