

Bourbon News - March 1, 1907

Mother and Child Dies in Few Hours of Each Other.

Cruel death has twice visited a Bourbon home twice in a few hours, that of Mr. Thomas Harp, a farmer residing on the Hawkins and Cummins pike, in past few days, and saddened the hearts of all in that community. Mr. and Mrs. Harp, who had only been married a little more than a year, reside with the latter's step-father, Mr. Wm. Rose. Mrs. Harp, who is nineteen years of age, gave birth to a child last week, which died Tuesday and was buried at Jacksonville cemetery Wednesday afternoon. As the father and members of the family returned from the burial to the home saddened by the death of his babe and the illness of the mother, they were overcome at finding Mrs. Harp breathing her last. The young mother will be buried today beside her infant at Jacksonville cemetery.