

Lexington Herald -

MCKINLEY

James "Mac" Thomas McKinley, 77, widower of Jean McKinley, 325 Richmond Ave., died Mon. at his residence. He was a retired tavern owner, born in Middletown, OH, son of the late Albert T. and Callie Osa Beekman McKinley. He was a member of Eastland Christian Church, and an honorary member of the V.F.W. Survivors include two sons, Frank Thomas McKinley, and daughter-in-law, Mary, Robert Allen McKinley Sr., and daughter-in-law, Sandy, all of Lexington; two sisters, Alberta McKinley, Lexington, and Kathryn Ransdell, Paris; five grandchildren, Robert Allen McKinley Jr., Lexington, Steven McKinley, Cincinnati, OH, Jimbo McKinley, Laura Rogers, and Angela Rogers, all of Lexington; and five great-grandchildren. Services are 1:30 p.m. Wed. at the W.R. Milward Mortuary-Broadway. Burial is in Lexington Cemetery. Bearers will be Albert Buffin, Frank, Robert and Bob McKinley Jr., Frank Johnson, and Mac Goldey. Honorary bearers will be John Bowling, Perry Rayburn, Al McIntyre, Jimbo and Steven McKinley. Friends may call 3-5 and 7-9 p.m. today.