

Mossbarger, Dane Rife 1923 - 2009

The Chillicothe Gazette – January 23, 1992

Dane R. Mossbarger, 86, of Washington Court House, died unexpectedly Monday, June 1, 2009 at 3:50 a.m. at Fayette County Medical Center. He was born on Jan. 27, 1923 in, Ross Co., the son of the late Karl R. and Mae L. Rife Mossbarger.

On Jan. 20, 1945 he married his wife of 48 years, the former Lena L. Ransdell who preceded him in death on Jan. 22, 1992. On Feb. 15, 1995 he married the former Mary Blazer, who survives.

Also surviving are his children; David (Joan) Mossbarger of Frankfort, Diane (Wayne) Hawley of Radnor OH, grandchildren; Jeff Mossbarger, Steve Mossbarger, Matthew Hawley, Dana Jagger, Debra McCann, great-grandchildren; Alex Mossbarger, Logan Mossbarger, Cody McCann, Hayden Hawley, Teagan Jagger, Clayton McCann. He was preceded in death by one sister; Helen Moomaw.

Dane was a 1941 graduate of Buckskin High School. He later attended Capital University in Columbus. He was a member of the Pisgah-Mount Pleasant Federated Church where he was Sunday School Superintendent, Elder, Choir member, Sunday School teacher and performed other various tasks for the church. He was a lifetime member of the Ross County Farm Bureau.

Services were entrusted to Ebright Funeral Home of Frankfort, Ohio.