Lexington Herald Leader – March 9, 2009

PARIS - Anna Faye Rose Nightingale, passed away Fri, Mar 6, 2009 at St. Joseph Hospital in Lexington, KY. She was born July 14, 1939 to the late Clarence Milton Rose and the late Elizabeth Mae Durbin and was raised in Lexington. She later moved to Beattyville, KY where she raised her family with the father of her children, Bob Nightingale. She is survived by three children, Annette (Steve) Fuller, Paris, Eddie (Tina) Nightingale, Lexington, and Mark (Diana) Nightingale, Beattyville; five grandchildren, Justin and Kevin (fiancé Lynn Morrison) Fuller, Jonathon Nightingale, and Shyra and Hunter Nightingale; and two great grandsons, Ethan and Conner Nightingale. She is also survived by a very special friend and companion, Raymond Vezina. Other survivors include six sisters, Betty (Allen) Nevius, Jessie (David) Dunn, Debra Eason, Linda (James) Moore, Lisa (Jeremy) Wright, and Juanita Phillips; and one brother, Wayne (Teresa) Rose; and many nieces, nephews, and friends. She loved painting, listening to Ray play music, flowers, and her pets, Molly, Kibby, and Jodie. She will be greatly missed but will remain forever in our hearts. She will also be remembered for her generous gift of organ donations, so that others may live a longer and better life. Funeral services will be 7pm Tue, Mar 10, at the Old Union Christian Church by Rev. Scott Winkler. Casket bearers will be Justin Fuller, Steve Fuller, Jeff Morrison, Doug Grabowski, Eddie Nightingale, and Mark Nightingale. Honorary bearers will be Sam Bowman, Bill Mays, Allen Nevius, David Dunn, J.C. Fuller, and William Thorpe. Visitation will be after 4pm Tue at the Old Union Christian Church and 11am-1pm Wed, Mar 11, at the Booneville Funeral Home, Booneville, KY. Graveside services will be 3pm Wed at Madison Memorial Gardens, Richmond, KY. Contributions are recommended to the Multiple Sclerosis Foundation. Hinton-Turner Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.
