

Lexington Herald - August 12, 1966

Mrs. Dema Burton Perkins
Mrs. Dema Burton Perkins, 73, of 1415 Oak Hill Drive, widow of Charles Perkins, died at 11:30 a.m. yesterday morning at the Good Samaritan Hospital after an illness of six months.

She was a native of Garrard County and had been a resident of Lexington most of her life. She was a member of the Arlington Christian Church.

Survivors include two daughters, Mrs. Cecil Brumfield and Mrs. Ben Janey, Franklin, Ohio; two sons, William McCoy, Lexington, and Sgt. James R. McCoy, U.S. Army in Germany; two sisters, Mrs. Elizabeth Mulcahy and Mrs. Eva Coons, Lexington; seven grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren.

Services will be conducted at 10 a.m. Monday at the Kerr Brothers Funeral Home by the Rev. Randolph A. White and the Rev. R.H.F. Anderson. Burial will be in the Lexington Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home after 4 p.m. Saturday.