

Caudill, Mary Agnes Brumfield 1946 - 2004

Published in the Lexington Herald-Leader on 8/27/2004.

Mary Agnes Brumfield Caudill

CAUDILL, Mary Agnes Brumfield, 58, wife of Tinsley Caudill, died Wed., Aug. 25, 2004, at St. Joseph East Hospital. A Lexington native, she was the daughter of the late Silas Jewell and Grace Boop Brumfield. Mrs. Caudill was a homemaker and attended Bluegrass Baptist Church. In addition to her husband, survivors include her children, Silas Caudill, Patricia McHone, Dennis (Samantha) Caudill, and Christopher Caudill, all of Lexington; grandchildren, Tinsley Peach, Richard McHone, Brittany McHone, Heather Caudill, Christina Caudill, and Ashley Caudill; half-brother, Jewell Brumfield; half-sister, Betty Jo Nichols; siblings, Joseph Brumfield, Gerald Brumfield, Asa Brumfield, Charles L. Brumfield, Evelyn Jackson, Randy Brumfield, and Sandy Walker; and best friend, Wanda Chaney. Funeral services will be 10:30 am Mon. at Kerr Brothers Funeral Home, Harrodsburg Road with burial to follow in Bluegrass Memorial Gardens. Pallbearers will be Timothy King, Billy Caudill, Edward Chaney, Brian Caudill, Johnathon Clem, and Anthony Arnold. Honorary pallbearers will be Roger Dunaway, Charles A. Brumfield, and Anthony Joe Brumfield. Visitation will be 5-9 pm Sat. and Sun. Memorial contributions are suggested to the American Diabetes Association, 1941 Bishop Lane, Louisville, KY 40218.