

Lexington Herald Leader – February 17, 1983

COVINGTON

Halley Carr Covington, 64, of Georgetown, retired agent for Kentucky Central Life Insurance Company, died Wednesday morning at the Humana Hospital after a brief illness. A native of Scott County, he was the son of the late Susie Wilhoite Jackson and James Covington, a charter member, former deacon and officer of the Gano Avenue Baptist Church and served as city councilman from 1964-1972. Survivors are his wife, Mrs. Gertrude Bruin Covington; a daughter, Ms. Judith C. Morris, Frankfort; a step-daughter, Mrs. Billy (Roberta) Osborne, Scott County; two step-sons, Joe and John Daugherty, both of Georgetown; a sister, Mrs. James (Mary Margaret) Harpole, Georgetown; three brothers, Roscoe and Harry Covington, both of Georgetown and John Richard Covington, Lexington; 9 grandchildren. Funeral services 10:00 a.m. Friday at Johnson's Funeral Home, Georgetown by Rev. George Monroe and Rev. Darrell Cruse. Burial Georgetown Cemetery. Active-bearers will be Roy, Charles, George Alfred, Bobby, R.C., Rick, Bonnie G., and Roscoe Covington Jr. Honorary bearers will be John H. Cooper, Millard Hambrick, Jack Curry, Larry Cloyd, Paul Ishmael, Victor Carr, Charles Johnson, Leland Perkins, Everett Walters. Friends may call from 3-9 p.m. today.

Halley Carr Covington dies

GEORGETOWN — Halley Carr Covington, 64, a former Georgetown City Council member and a retired insurance agent, died yesterday at Humana Hospital-Lexington. He had been ill since Feb. 5.

Covington served four terms on the Georgetown City Council, from 1964 to 1972.

He worked as an agent for Kentucky Central Life Insurance Co. for 26 years. He retired two years ago.

He was also a charter member and former deacon and officer of the Gano

Avenue Baptist Church in Georgetown.

He lived at 402 Payne Avenue.

Covington is survived by his wife, Gertrude Bruin Covington; a daughter, Judith C. Morris of Frankfort; two stepsons, Joe and John Daugherty, of Georgetown; a stepdaughter, Roberta Osborne of Georgetown; three brothers; a sister; two grandchildren; and seven stepgrandchildren.

The funeral will be at 10 a.m. Friday at Johnson's Funeral Home. Visitation is from 3 to 9 p.m. today at the funeral home.