

Lexington Herald Leader – February 17, 2000

STIVERS

Claude William (C.W.) Stivers, 74, lifelong resident of Lexington, loving and devoted husband for 48 years of Gene Stivers, died Tuesday, February 15, 2000. He was the son of the late John Christian and Cora Lee Stivers. Claude served in the US Army during WWII and was a member of the Parkway Baptist Church. He was a retired research technician with US Public Health Service and a loyal employee of Whitehall Funeral Chapel. He was a loving father and grandfather. In addition to his wife, he is survived by four daughters and three sons-in-law, Carol and Bill Hatfield, Lexington, Lee Ann and Bob Cook, Wilmington, NC, Billie Sue and Greg Williams, Louisville and Linda Fuller, Bristol, TN; grandchildren, Sean Christian, Alison Shea and Lane Bennett Hatfield, Wesley Andrew and Ryan Christian Cook, Whitney Rene and Cory Stivers Williams, Wayne and Mark Fuller; four great grandchildren; devoted aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces and nephews. Friends may call today 6-9 p.m. at Whitehall Funeral Chapel, where services will be held on Friday, February 18, at 10 a.m. with Rev. Charles Howell officiating. Burial in Lexington Cemetery. Serving as pallbearers will be Bill Hatfield, Bob Cook, Greg Williams, Tommy Lilly, Bob Mullen and Gary Ginn. Honorary pallbearers will be Chester Hager, David Mangione, Dr. Barry Purdom, George, James R. and Herman A. Stivers and Rick Newnam. Memorial contributions may be directed to the Woodford County Humane Society.