

Willoughby, Harry 1937 - 2010

Lexington Herald Leader – March 21, 2010

VERSAILLES - Harry Willoughby, 72, retired Sallee Van driver and husband of Laura Willoughby, died Fri, March 19. Harry was a member of the Christian Church, was a Mason, and an avid motorcycle enthusiast. He had recently been a part time driver for Driesbach Wholesale. In addition to his wife, surviving are his daughters, Cheryl (Keith) Slugantz, Kim (Buddy) Carmickle, and Dana (James Middleton) Willoughby, all of Versailles, a sister, Barbara (Cecil) McKinney and a brother, Thomas Willoughby, both of Georgetown, six grandchildren, Anna Carmickle, Josh Slugantz, Wes Slugantz, Leah Cloyd, Kelly Carmickle, Savannah Willoughby, and a great grandson, Wyatt Slugantz. A daughter, Elizabeth Willoughby, preceded him in death. Services will be 11:30am Tue, March 23 at Blackburn & Ward Funeral Home with Rev. Robert Warren officiating. Burial will be in Rose Crest Cemetery. Honorary pallbearers will be Harry's biker friends. Visitation is from 4-8pm Mon with a Masonic Service at 7:30pm. Memorials suggested to American Heart Assn. or to Cystic Fibrosis Foundation. Online guestbook at BlackburnandWard.com.