

Louisville Courier Journal – February 9, 1985

Joseph A. Savoie, 71, of 3001 Debera Way, died Friday at Veterans Administration Medical Center.

He was a native of Augusta, Maine, and a retired attorney. He was former assistant prosecuting city attorney and a retired attorney for Legal Aid Society. He was an Army officer and veteran of World War II and received the Bronze Metal. He was a member of Retired Army Officers Association, Louisville, Kentucky and American Bar associations, American Legion Post 229, Disabled American Veterans, Masonic Lodge 865, Kosair Shrine and Scottish Rite.

Survivors include his wife, the former Gladys Yount; a son, Robert Janovsky of Boston; a sister, Mrs. Lillian Lillie of Richmond, Maine; and a brother, Raymond Savoie of Richmond, Maine.

The funeral will be at 2 p.m. Monday at Arch L. Heady Hikes Point Funeral Home, 4109 Taylorsville Road, with burial in Cropper Cemetery in Shelby County.

Visitation at the funeral home will be from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. Sunday and after 10 a.m. Monday.

The family requests that expressions of sympathy take the form of contributions to the American Heart Fund or to Kosair Shrine.