Clarence Renners, ran bowling alley

Clarence H. "Babe" Renners, 69, manager of the Sanker Bowling Lanes in Mount Healthy for 28 years, died Thursday at Kettering Memorial Hospital.

Mr. Renners, who retired from the bowling alley in 1980, was described by his oldest son, Clarence, as a "super manager."

Clarence, of Dayton, Ohio, worked part-time with his father. "He knew exactly how to get along with people. He was also a fairly decent bowler when he put his heart to it," the son said.

In Mr. Renners' later years, he practically gave up bowling, limiting his activities to a mixed league on a team with his wife, another son, Roger, of North College Hill, and Roger's wife.

After retiring, Mr. Renners moved from North College Hill to Centerville. He was also a member of the Eagles Club of Mount Healthy.

Besides sons Clarence and Roger, Mr. Renners is survived by a daughter, Robyn Jacob, of Bright, Ind.; another son, Jerome C. Renners of Fairfield; and 10 grandchildren.

Mass will be at 10 a.m. today in St. Margaret Mary Church, 1830 W. Galbraith Rd., North College Hill. Visitation, 8:30 a.m. to 9:45 a.m. today in Neidhard Funeral Home, 7401 Hamilton Ave., Mount Healthy. Burial, Gate of Heaven Cemetery, Montgomery.
