

Akron Beacon Journal – June 18, 1995

Susan Lorraine Carr

HARTVILLE — Susan Lorraine Carr, beloved daughter, sister, aunt and friend is “absent from the body and at home with the Lord” (2 Cor 5:8).

Possessing a quick mind, brilliant memory and a tender giving spirit, she touched the lives of all she met. Susan loved music, animals and the mountains of West Virginia. She was an avid reader, conscientious medical lab technician, thorough geologist, enthusiastic volunteer, and a trusted confidante. She always had gum for her niece and nephews.

Sue will be greatly missed by all she left behind. Grieving her death are her mother and father, Mary and Harold Carr; sisters and brother-in-law, Jeanette Carr, Ruthann and Rudolph Robinson; brother, Andy; nephews, Rudy Benjamin and David Robinson; niece, Sara Robinson; and a host of other relatives and friends.

Calling hours will be from 6 to 8 p.m. Monday at the Dunn-Quigley, Ciriello & Carr Funeral Home (811 Grant St.), where Rev. Michael McCartney will conduct services at 8 p.m. Committal services and interment will take place on Wednesday at Bright's Chapel Cemetery, Hendricks, W. Va. (Dunn-Quigley, Ciriello & Carr, 253-8121.)