

Akron Beacon Journal – October 17, 2004

Leo F. Delagrance

FRANKLIN TWP. – Leo F. Delagrance, 73, passed away suddenly Oct. 15, 2004.

Born in Akron, he had been an area resident all his life where he retired from B & W Construction Co. after 30 years of service. He also worked for Al's West Hill Station, owned and operated the 5th Street Marathon in Barberton and East Side Automotive. He attended St. Augustine Catholic Church and was also a graduate of St. Vincent High School. Leo was a proud Army veteran during the Korean Conflict and a lifetime V.F.W. member. He enjoyed collecting antique cars, was an avid walker, and loved traveling and sports.

Preceded in death by his parents, John and Coeline; and infant daughter, Maria; survivors include his loving wife of 43 years, Mary; sons, Daniel J. (Brenda) of Doylestown and David (Tanya) of Norton; granddaughters, Tiffany, Taylor and Avery; brother, John (Alice) Delagrance of Akron; sisters, Mary Ellen (Al) Amer of Akron, Sally (Leo) Longville of Akron, Emilie (Robert) Clifford of Angola, Ind., Jane (John) Becker of Livingston, Texas and Rosemary (Peter) Senecal of Angola, Ind.; and many nieces, nephews and friends.

Funeral service will be held Tuesday, 9:30 a.m. at Hahn-Hostetler-Silva Funeral Home. Mass of Christian Burial 10 a.m. at St. Augustine Catholic Church. Interment at Ohio Western Reserve National Cemetery. Calling Hours Monday from 2 to 4 and 6 to 8 p.m. Share your memories of Leo at www.mem.com. (Hahn-Hostetler-Silva, 330-825-2467.)

Please sign the guestbook at www.ohio.com/obituaries