

Akron Beacon Journal – April 20, 1963

LOUIS C. GNAU

SUFFIELD—Louis C. Gnau, 71, a retired Firestone tool maker and an Akron area resident for 62 years, died Friday. He lived at 1187 Catherine st.

Mr. Gnau

Mr. Gnau was born in Navarre and worked for Firestone 30 years, retiring six years ago. Earlier he was employed at the Williams Foundry for 18 years.

He was a member of St. Joseph Church in Randolph.

Mr. Gnau leaves his wife, Mary; sons, Paul of Dayton and Cletus of Akron; daughters, Mrs. Joan Dutton of Barberton, Mrs. Rosemary Elick of Akron; Mrs. Colette Hesse of Suffield; a sister, Florence Gnau of Stow, and 18 grandchildren.

Services will be 10:30 a. m. Monday at St. Bernard Catholic Church. Burial will be in Holy Cross Cemetery. Friends may call at the Hummel Funeral Home from 7 to 9 tonight and Sunday from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p. m.