

Akron Beacon Journal – March 5, 1992

Joseph Gene Wagner

CUYAHOGA FALLS — Joseph Gene Wagner, 65, died March 3, 1992.

He was born in Akron and had been a resident of Cuyahoga Falls most of his life. He retired from B.F. Goodrich as a research technician with 26 years service. He was a Navy veteran of World War II and a member of the Immaculate Heart of Mary Catholic Church, Knights of Columbus Council 2362 and Akron Derbytown Chorus.

He is survived by his wife, Edwina; sons and daughter-in law, Joseph and Nancy of Seattle, Wash., Daniel of the residence; daughters and sons-in-law, Theresa and John Finn of Doylestown, Marybeth and Louie Szabo of Calgary, Alberta, Canada; grandchildren, Brian, Eric, Jonathan, Aidan, Jennifer, Christopher, Alexander and Spencer; twin brother, Gerald and his wife, June, of Cuyahoga Falls; brothers, Edward and Richard of California; brothers and sisters-in-law, Carl and Louise of Akron, Arnold and Dorothy of Cuyahoga Falls, Alfred and Edna of Stow; sisters and brothers-in-law, Mary and Harold Carr, Betty and Ronald Bergdorf of Akron; sister-in-law, Florence Wagner of Cuyahoga Falls.

Friends may call at the McGowan-Reid & Santos Funeral Home, at Third Street one block north of Portage Trail, Cuyahoga Falls, from 6 to 9 p.m. Friday. Mass of the Christian Burial will be Saturday, 10:30 a.m., at Immaculate Heart of Mary Church. Interment at Northlawn Memorial Gardens. (McGowan-Reid & Santos, 928-1313.)