

Akron Beacon Journal - July 2, 1977

Florence G. Walter

Florence G. Walter, 60, of 1515 Dale st., Akron, died July 1, 1977 at St. Thomas Hospital, following an extended illness.

She was employed for over 20 years at the Anderson Rubber Co., until quitting approximately three years ago. She was born in Cleveland and lived 58 years in Akron, and was a member of St. Sebastian Church.

Survived by her husband Lawrence H.; one son, James L. of Copley, O.; three sisters, Mrs. Stella Fitzgerald of Cuyahoga Falls, O., Mrs. Helen Ulatowski and Mrs. Irene Bernat, both of Akron; three grandchildren.

Mass of the Christian Burial, 10 a.m. Tuesday, from St. Sebastian Church. Burial Holy Cross Cemetery. Friends may call at the Hennessey Funeral Home, 936 N. Main st., from 2 till 8 p.m. Monday. Parish Wake Service, 8 p.m. Monday. Those desiring may contribute to the St. Sebastian Parish Foundation or to the Children's Hospital of Akron, O. (Hennessey, AKRON, 535-1518).